Thanks for your interest in Prattville CityFest 2010. This event is our opportunity to celebrate our pride in Prattville.

We are extremely proud of the many gracious compliments that we received in the past. It is our goal to again make Prattville CityFest a favorite with our exhibitors, and an event truly worthy of our "Preferred Community."

We are constantly changing to better meet your needs, (many as a result of your suggestions), aimed at making Prattville CityFest even better. We want to make Prattville CityFest 2010 a success for all involved.

Several veteran exhibitors have said that Prattville CityFest was the most organized show that they had ever attended. We will make every effort to insure that Prattville CityFest is a pleasurable and profitable experience for you...this is our promise.

The City of Prattville is a mixture of old and new. Locals are proud of the heritage Prattville and Autauga County offer, and are working together to make things happen. Prattville is an adventure in good living, a warm blend of hospitality with a genteel lifestyle.

Prattville CityFest displays our pride, and we invite you to join us in celebration. Hundreds of volunteers are contributing their time, talents, and support to stage this festival.

On the banks of the Autauga creek, the day will be filled with live entertainment, children's activities, a health fair, exhibits, good food, and YOU!
